

"In war there is no substitute for victory." — General Douglas MacArthur

"I am concerned for the security of our great Nation; not so much because of any threat from without, but because of the insidious forces working from within." - General Douglas MacArthur

"It is fatal to enter any war without the will to win it." - General Douglas MacArthur

“Once war is forced upon us, there is no alternative than to apply every available means to bring it to a swift end. War’s very object is victory-not prolonged indecision.” — Douglas MacArthur

"Americans never quit." - General Douglas MacArthur

"Age wrinkles the body. Quitting wrinkles the soul." - General Douglas MacArthur

"Years wrinkle the skin, but to give up enthusiasm wrinkles the soul." - General Douglas MacArthur

"The best luck of all is the luck you make for yourself." - General Douglas MacArthur

"The world is in a constant conspiracy against the brave. It's the age-old struggle: the roar of the crowd on the one side, and the voice of your conscience on the other." - General Douglas MacArthur

"There is no security on this earth; there is only opportunity." - General Douglas MacArthur

"Build me a son, O Lord, who will be strong enough to know when he is weak, and brave enough to face himself when he is afraid, one who will be proud and unbending in honest defeat, and humble and gentle in victory." - General Douglas MacArthur

"A general is just as good or just as bad as the troops under his command make him." - General Douglas MacArthur

"Our government has kept us in a perpetual state of fear - kept us in a continuous stampede of patriotic fervor - with the cry of grave national emergency." - General Douglas MacArthur

"It is part of the general pattern of misguided policy that our country is now geared to an arms economy which was bred in an artificially induced psychosis of war hysteria and nurtured upon an incessant propaganda of fear." - General Douglas MacArthur

"Part of the American dream is to live long and die young. Only those Americans who are willing to die for their country are fit to live." - General Douglas MacArthur

“Years may wrinkle the skin, but to give up interest wrinkles the soul. You are as young as your faith, as old as your doubt; as young as your self-confidence, as old as your fear; as young as your hope as old as your despair. In the central place of every heart there is a recording chamber. So long as it receives messages of beauty, hope, cheer and courage, so long are you young.

When your heart is covered with the snows of pessimism and the ice of cynicism, then, and then only, are you grown old. And then, indeed as the ballad says, you just fade away” — Douglas MacArthur

“Whoever said the pen is mightier than the sword obviously never encountered automatic weapons.” — Douglas MacArthur

“The enemy is in front of us, the enemy is behind us, the enemy is to the right and to the left of us. They can't get away this time!” — Douglas MacArthur

“I had learned one of the bitter lessons of life: never try to regain the past, the fire will have become ashes.” — Douglas MacArthur

“I realize that advice is worth what it costs--that is, nothing.” — Douglas MacArthur

“Few names have left a firmer imprint upon the pages of the history of American times than has that of Ty Cobb... he seems to have understood that in the competition of baseball, just as in war, defensive strategy never has produced ultimate victory.” — Douglas MacArthur

“I Shall Return” — Douglas MacArthur
